15 INITIAL INCIDENT DESCRIPTION / NARRATIVE:
[On 09-14-16 working as 2F13 in full uniform and driving my fully marked police vehicle in the City of Seattle, I responded to Navos 2600 Sw Holden St for an Assault call dispatched as MALE PATIENT THREW A CHAIR A WINDOW, NO ONE INJ...NO WPNS
I arrived on scene, activated my ICV and contacted the Victim identified as [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] is a Unit Coordinator for Navos and stated at approximately 1745hrs the Suspect identified as [REDACTED] (DOB: [REDACTED]) threw a chair at her through a glass window she was sitting behind in the 3rd floor reception area after he became upset with her over [REDACTED] not locating property which he claimed to have brought to Navos on his admittance two days prior.
[REDACTED] stated upon [REDACTED]'s intake on 09/12/16, [REDACTED] demanded he be reunited with unknown personal items which [REDACTED] and the other staff members had no record of per facility records. [REDACTED] stated when she informed [REDACTED] of this information, he became verbally aggressive and hostile towards her and other staff members. [REDACTED] stated today at 1745hrs today, [REDACTED] again approached her while she sit in a chair in the glass encased 3rd floor reception area and again asked her where his property was in a hostile manner. After [REDACTED] again informed [REDACTED] they had no record of any property being held for him at the facility, [REDACTED] stated [REDACTED] began yelling louder and stated, "Well, I'm just gonna have to fuck this place up" and walked around the corner out of sight.

[REDACTED] stated a few moments later, [REDACTED] reemerged with a chair in his hands and swung the chair in a throwing motion towards her head, neck and shoulders through the glass barrier which lay between them. [REDACTED] stated she was sitting very close to the glass barrier when [REDACTED] swung the chair at her and she had to quickly duck in a downward motion away from the chair's path in order to not be struck in the area of her head. [REDACTED] stated she believe [REDACTED]'s intention was to strike her in the head with the chair but due to her ducking down quickly he was unsuccessful. [REDACTED] stated due to [REDACTED] swinging the chair at her, she suffered multiple small lacerations in various areas of her person from the shattering glass. [REDACTED] stated following the assault [REDACTED] continued yelling at her in a hostile manner and was transported to a nearby isolation chamber by staff.

The Witness identified as [REDACTED] stated she also visually witnessed [REDACTED] aggressively yelling at [REDACTED] prior to the assault, then swing the chair through the glass barrier in a throwing motion in the direction of [REDACTED]'s person.

Seattle Fire Department Engine #37 arrived on scene and provided medical attention to [REDACTED].

I spoke with staff who estimate the property damage at approximately $300.

I took photos of [REDACTED]'s injuries and submitted them to DEMS.

I took photos of the property damage and submitted them to DEMS.

CIT Officer Enright #5370 arrived on scene at my request.

Sgt Britt #6770 was present during this event at my request and screened this incident on scene.

[REDACTED] was placed into custody without incident (G/DL) for Assault SMC 12a.06.010 and Property Damage 12a.08.020. [REDACTED] was read his Miranda Rights on scene and was direct booked to King County Jail.

I gave [REDACTED] a business card with the case number.
